First - The police have been called and alerted. My neighbor just stole a black woman about 5'4-5'5 was looking into the window of my home and asked her what she was doing, and she wouldn't really answer. She was "looking for an opportunity" and "she knew her rights" and had property. I'm on La Jolla blvd and westbourne st and she left to come back to westbourne. Just a heads up everyone! Please be alert and safe and thank you neighbors!
